DID YOU KNOW?

On the 12th July 1913 His Majesty King George V and Her Majesty Queen Mary passed through the township of Waterloo after visiting Ashton-under-Lyne. The four Sunday Schools in the township of Waterloo were invited by the Parish Council Clerk to assemble in good numbers alongside the 'Dog and Partridge' Public House on Oldham Road.

Members of Waterloo and Taunton Conservative Club also gathered at the top of the club entrance to cheer on the royal visitors.
